

The Career Resource Centre's 'Best Picks'

Exploring Careers In Accounting?

Here are some of our favourites:

Great Jobs for Accounting Majors

By: Jan Goldberg

This is a useful resource for any student looking into the field of Accounting as a potential career. It outlines the steps required to get ahead on the job search in a clear and informative manner. This book serves as a good resource for everything from preparing an effective resumé, developing interview skills and exploring types of career paths in accounting.

Section: Occupational Information

Careers in Accounting

By: Gloria L. Gaylord and Glenda E. Reid

This detailed guide offers an explanation for every aspect of accounting including the possible industries, salaries and different opportunities available to anyone interested in pursuing an accounting career, or someone who is already in the industry looking to move ahead. It also includes specific job information, such as potential wages.

Section: Occupational Information

What Can You Do with a Major in Business?

By: Kate Shoup Welsh

Thinking of accounting but want to know what else you can do with a business major? Look no further. This book is a great resource for researching potential opportunities, and useful to those who are unclear about their direction after graduation. It also includes useful online links such as job search and industry information. Especially helpful for those considering pursuing a business-related career or looking for information on pursuing further education, such as an MBA in the USA.

Section: Occupational Information

LAURIER
Career Development Centre

Login to Navigator to search the full listings: www.wlu.ca/career