

The Career Resource Centre's “Best Picks”

Exploring Careers Working Abroad?

Here are some of our favourites:

Jobs and Careers Abroad
By: Deborah Penrith

Useful resource for any student looking for a truly international career. Outlines organizations offering full-time employment to international job seekers. Classifies employers into 35 various industries or 50 different countries. Useful for globetrotters hoping to make a permanent move to a specific profession.

The Back Door Guide to Short-Term Job Adventures
By: Michael Landes

This guide offers an exhaustive list of short-term international employment and volunteer opportunities, categorized by the traveller's interests and passions. It includes specific job opportunities detailing wage, duration and other details. Most positions are in the United States, but it does list global opportunities. A useful guide for students looking for an American short-term paid or volunteer position.

Delaying the Real World: A Twentysomething's Guide to Seeking Adventure
By: Colleen Kinder

An attractive guide offering personalized experiences of young graduates who travelled the world, learning life's experiences. Informal (and unorganized), this book is a great resource of first-hand experiences, unique (and crazy) opportunities and useful online links. Useful for recent grads hoping to “delay the real world....”
