

The Career Resource Centre's “Best Picks”

Career Planning and Management

Here are some of our favourites:

What Should I Do with My Life

By: Po Bronson

This book tells the inspirational true stories of individuals and their career paths. The people in this book range from young to old to those in their second career. You will get a deep insight into the lives of these individuals and will start to find a path that's right for you.

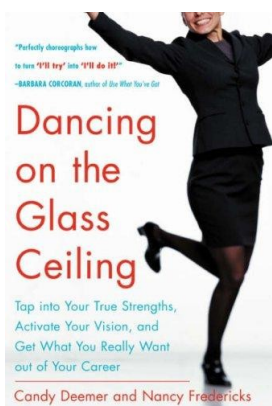

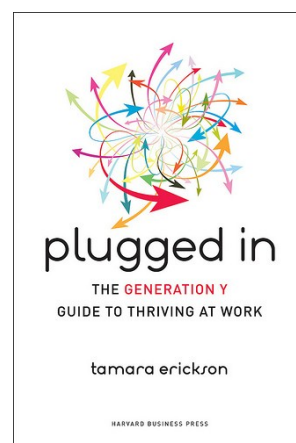

Section: Career Planning ●

Plugged In - The Generation Y Guide to Thriving at Work

By: Tamara Erickson

A great resource to help individuals achieve success in a changing workplace. Filled with the author's extensive research on the generation Y demographic, the book gives you the information you need to identify your strengths and weaknesses in order to help you thrive in the corporate workplace.

Section: Career Planning ●

Dancing on the Glass Ceiling

By: Candy Deemer and Nancy Fredericks

An intuitive read to guide women to the top of the hierarchy and to their full potential as leaders. The book is backed by interviews and real-life experiences that prove insightful and fun to read.

Section: Women and Work ●

Login to Navigator to search the full listings: www.wlu.ca/career

LAURIER
Career Development Centre